SIXTIETH CONGRESS MEETS

Cannon Again the Big Gun--Williams Minority Leader--Owen and Gore not Seated--Oklahoma's Representatives Cheered

Washington, Dec. 2.—A brilliant occasion for enthusiastic cheering characterized the meeting of the sixtieth congress today. In the senate and house of representatives there were notable gatherings in the galleries of representatives first time of the men who have been elected to the senate and house, about 100 of whom have not before served in congress made the occasion one of particular interest. Oklahoma's senators will not be received until their formal election.

The striking scenes of the day were in the house of representatives where the formal election of Joseph G. Cannon, who again became speaker of that body, and designation by the democrats of John Sharp Williams as their leader, were occasions for ovations for those gentlemen. The vast hall of the house of representatives rang with the cheers of republicans and democrats for their leaders, and the speaker received as warm a reception from the minority as he did from his own party.

The appearance of William J. Bryan on the floor of the house also was the occasion for enthusiastic cheering by the democrats.

When the adoption of rules for the government of house during the sixtieth congress came up the rules of the last congress were opposed by John Sharp Williams, and he was joined in the opposition by democrats and by a single republican, Mr. Cooper of Wisconsin. The old rules were declared to be too autocratic, placing too much power in the hands of the speaker but after a somewhat acrimonious discussion they were adopted by a party vote.

Cheer Oklahoma Contingent.

When Oklahoma was called the democrats loudly applauded the representatives from the new state, who bowed their acknowledgments.

The republican and democrat caucus appointments of house officials then were presented and the republican nominees were elected.

Gore and Owen Not Received.

Messrs. Robert L. Owen and T. P. Gore, of Oklahoma, not having been elected to the senate by their legislature, were not received by the senate and their credentials will not be accepted until after their formal election on December 19.

OTHER CANDIDATES ELIMINATED.

Majority of Democrats in Congress Think Bryan the Only One.

New York, Dec. 2.—Out of seventy-six democratic senators, and representatives polled in Washington by the New York World, forty-four declare unequivocally that the recent statement of William Jennings Bryan that he is a candidate for the democratic nomination for the presidency eliminates all other candidates. Practically all of them believe that he should run on a conservative platform although there is a difference of opinion as to what the platform should be. Of those who do not consider that Bryan is the only man, one, Senator Randall of Louisiana, is definite in naming a candidate. He comes out flat for Gov. Johnson of Minnesota.

Statehood is Cause of Increase in Fine.
Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 2.—Because of the decrease in offenders since statehood became effective, Judge Calt, of city court has raised the fine in drunkenness charges. The fine will now be $9 instead of $7.

OKLAHOMAS' LEGISLATURE

Officers Elected--Organization Perfected--Governor's Message Read--Busy Scenes

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 2.—In the presence of the senate and house of representatives sitting tonight in joint session in the city hall, after Oklahoma's first state legislature had been organized, Governor C. N. Haskell delivered his first message. The governor read slowly and distinctly, giving emphasis to the most important recommendations. The reading was attended closely and with marked interest by the legislators and hundreds of spectators who filled the galleries, halls and windows.

Speaker Murray presided over the session and President Pro-tem Johnson, the democratic house and senate leaders, and other prominent men occupied conspicuous places.

Round d out tonight is a day of strenuous, arduous labor for Oklahoma's first legislators. It was marked by harmony and dispatch, combined with a spirit of earnest endeavor that promises to characterize the entire session. A message from the senate to pointed, Senators Wynne and Roddie comprising that on clerks, and Senators Billups, Stafford, Soldani and Cunningham that on roll call and credentials. The latter committee consulted briefly and reported no contests, upon which the roll was called by Senator Echols and all members, 44 in number, responded.

Chief Justice Williams, of the Oklahoma supreme court, administered the official oath which the constitution has provided for all state and legislative officers. The senators stood at their respective desks, with right hands uplifted, the walls about them adorned with rippling bunting the galleries streamed with pretty women, the glorious sunshine of an ideal Oklahoma autumn day pouring its rays of light through the great windows of the chamber walls and the arched balcony above, and the faces in portrait of the men who made the constitution and penned that oath watching them from a large oak frame hung in the the house this afternoon announced that that body was fully organized. A similar message was sent to the senate by the house and Governor Haskell was apprised of the proceedings. Each house will complete its clerk list tomorrow and a full quota of committees probably will be announced.

Oklahoma's first state senate convened in the supreme court chamber of the temporary state house at 12 o'clock today. Lieutenant Governor Bellamy presiding. Chaplain-elect Tackler implored divine blessing upon the body in a prayer imbued with fervor and exalted sentiment.

Two committees necessary in the first steps of the organization were appointed, Senators Wynne and Roddie comprising that on clerks, and Senators Billups, Stafford, Soldani and Cunningham that on roll call and credentials. The latter committee consulted briefly and reported no contests, upon which the roll was called by Senator Echols and all members, 44 in number, responded.

Murray Is Elected Speaker.

William H. Murray was unanimously elected speaker of the house of representatives shortly after that body convened today. The nominating speech was delivered by Representative Turner of Murray county, and seconded by Representative H. S. P. Ashby, of Marshall county. This was followed by a piece of unique procedure consisting of a motion by Representative A. J. Sands, of Beaver county, one of the seventeen republicans in the house, making Murray's nomination unanimous. Representative Durant, of Murray county, was chosen chairman of the house. Representative Whitehurst, the majority leader, retiring from the chair. All members of the house were present save Representatives Brown, Moore and Stone.

Speaker Murray was escorted to the stand by Representatives Brandon, of Muskogee, Hart of Woodward, and Steedmund, of Lincoln, and in a brief address declared his position on several matters he considered of moment to this legislature, professing the address with emphatic statements that he would be speaker of every man in the house, giving every man a square deal and impartial consideration.

Speaker Murray this afternoon made the following appointments: Private secretary to the speaker, R. D. McManus; reading clerk, N. A. Gordon, of Guthrie; William Carner, of Tishomingo, messenger; door keeper, T. J. Dickinson, of Gage, and H. Hallen of Davis; James Noble (colored), janitor, and James Armstrong, assistant janitor; Guy Branzendine, of Guthrie who was a page in the constitutional convention, page.

Governor's Message.

Guthrie, Ok., Dec. 2.—Gov. Haskell's message to the first state legislature was read before both houses today. It classed a number of matters as emergencies with the request that they be

Governor's Message.

Guthrie, Ok., Dec. 2.—Gov. Haskell's message to the first state legislature was read before both houses today. It classed a number of matters as emergencies with the request that they be immediately attended to. Among them is the reform of the state banking laws details of which, as recommended by the governor, were printed in The News of Nov. 30, with the additional recommendation that state banks be given two annual inspections instead of one, and that the matter of annual salary for state bank examiner be left optional with the legislature instead of being fixed at $3,000.

The joint session of the house and senate for the purpose of listening to Governor Haskell read his first message was held at 7:30 o'clock tonight. The senate entered the hall carrying flags and accompanied by a band of music. As the governor entered and approached the speaker's stand, accompanied by various officers of state the band played "Dixie" and the members stood waving their banners. Henry S. Johnson, president pro tem of the senate, then proposed that the band play "Star Spangled Banner," causing the demonstration to break forth again. The message consumed about one hour's time.

The governor asks that the executive department be authorized to employ such attorneys and accountants as may be necessary to audit the accounts of Oklahoma Territory in all departments up to the date of their surrender to the state officials, to the end that all public accounts may have

The XX Century Club.

The XX Century Club held an exceedingly interesting meeting with Mrs. H. M. Furman last Tuesday.

The lesson for the afternoon was practical Home science. Recipes and demonstrations with Mrs. Brownell as leader. Members and guests answered to roll call with their "Favorite Dish" it was very interesting to note the variety of tastes of "club women."

Members engaged in quite an interesting discussion on "School Lunches" receiving many helpful ideas.

In demonstrating their "Favorite dishes" half of the club entertained the other half with a three course luncheon.

The first course served and prepared in the dining room on chafing dishes by Mrs. Galbraith. Furman and Miss Torbett, consisted of Welsh rarebit, cheese straws and pickles. The second course a delicious fruit salad and wafers, was served by Mesdames Lefevre, Moore and Thomson.

The third course, the daintiest of all puddings, "marshmallow" was served with coffee by Mesdames Hope, Croxton, Meades, Brownell and Beard.

Mrs. Furman's palatial home was beautifully decorated in mistletoe and other evergreens which was a pleasant reminder that the holidays are almost here.

There were a number of invited guests present who considered this as one of the most delightful and helpful of club meetings.

Mission Worker Here.

Rev. J. F. Tanner of Pryor Creek, Oklahoma, is in the city in the interest of the W. T. Whiteaker Orphan's home the only orphanage for white and Indian children in the new state.

Rev. Tanner enjoys the distinction of being engaged in a great work and in a work that has done a great deal toward the uplifting of orphan children in Oklahoma since the orphanage was founded in 1897.

The children's band at the Whitaker Orphan's Home furnished the music at Gov. Haskell's inauguration and is considered one of the best bands in Oklahoma.

Rev. Tanner preached at the First Methodist church last Sunday night and at the conclusion of the service took up a collection to the benefit of the mission. Something near thirty dollars in cash was realized and several others subscribed a real neat sum.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force; makes you well and happy. 35c. Tea or Tablets. G. M. RAMSEY.

Rah for Wimlish.

Robt. Wimlish, Pontotoc county's attorney has an article in the governor's message. While in Guthrie some time ago, he made the following recommendation to the governor and was then assured that such would be done. It reads:

"All attorneys for the state and county attorneys being empowered to present criminal charges by information I recommend the adoption of proper laws requiring witnesses to appear before such attorneys and give evidence as to criminal offenses, concerning which subject the attorney may require knowledge preliminary to the filing of such information."

Attorney Wimlish has prepared a bill along this line and it is now in the hands of Representative Ratliff.

VISIONS OF DARK AGES.

Visions Conjured Up in Torture Room of Ancient Tyrant.

The horror of horrors in all Italy is found at Padua, known as the torture rooms of that demonical monster of cruelty, Ecelino, a thirteenth century ruler of Verona, Padua, Vicenza and Brescia. His cruelties finally became so intolerable that the church proclaimed a crusade against him. The peasant rose and a farmer killed the brute with a scythe. I was shown an upright box in which was the skeleton of a victim. Two apertures enabled the condemned to see a table, just out of reach, crowded with food and drink. To-day, it is stage food and the wine is colored water, but the realism is intense. The climax of shudders was reached when I came to a block in the center of a small square room. Nailed to the chopping block, severed midway between the wrist and elbow lay the dainty hand of a woman, just as it had been chopped from the living arm! The instant my eyes saw this sight the cell seemed to resound with the shrieks of the terrified woman, and, although the hand I gazed upon was of wax, the mental shock produced was dreadful beyond conception. —Brooklyn Eagle.

DCOM OF MIGHTY LONDON.

Fire About the Only Agent Which Can Cause Its Destruction.

With hints of German invasion and of an approaching earthquake, the question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about the ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealander is to cast his moralizing eye? Several answers may be given. The destruction of London at the hands of a victorious invader is possible, but extremely improbable. London may be besieged, even bombarded; she cannot be destroyed. Flood? This again may be dismissed as most improbable; and one calamity only remains to be considered, namely—fire. Now, London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause, and in 1666 the city was practically wiped out. Every one knows this; but it is not every one who knows that the great conflagration was predicted 15 years before by Lilly, the astrologer, and by another astrologer, Nostradamus, a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quatrain, the gist of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St. Paul's and 89 other churches.—Casell's Saturday Journal.

THE LIGHT OF PATIENCE.

Owner of One Telephone in Flat Building 8 cents.

"Of course," said the cheerful woman, "I believe in loving my neighbor as myself, but I find it harder since we have had a telephone put in our flat. We live in an old-fashioned flat house and ours is the only telephone on the premises. I do not know how the neighbors learned that we have one, for I am not acquainted with anybody in the building, but it was not in more than a week when the woman across the hall came over to ask if she could use it. 'Of course I'll pay,' she said, and naturally I had no choice but to let her use it. She paid five cents, but under the rules of the telephone company private wires cost more than that per message. However, I did not wish to be small, so I let it pass. She evidently carried the good news throughout the building, for there has been a continuous performance ever since. A few days ago somebody rang me up and asked for Mrs. Blank, who lives on the top floor. I was the only person at home at the time, so I had to climb three flights of stairs and tell Mrs. Blank to come down. What's that? Virtue its own—Oh, yes, I know; but whose virtue?"

NEWS PREMIUM Subscription Contest.

Beginning Monday, December 2nd to continue four months, ending March 31st, The News will conduct a contest devoted to securing a large and more extended circulation and to properly rewarding those who may become our associates and helpers in this undertaking.

As outlined in last week's News, all the features of the contest will be simple. Several valuable premiums will be given to those securing themselves, or through their friends, the greatest number of Subscribers to the News.

All the premiums will be listed in the order of their conservatively estimated values. At the expiration of the contest, the premium awards will be made by the contest judges with a view to their fitness, based on their reputations for honesty and fair dealing.

To the lady contestant securing the highest number of votes there will be given a $500 upright standard brand piano, accompanied with a guarantee of ten years. To the contestant ladies and gentlemen included—securing the second highest number of votes there will be given a warranty deed to a Two Hundred Dollar well located residence lot situated in the best town in this section of the country.

There will be several other premiums included in other valuable real estate situated in the more substantial towns in this section, and in addition a $100 standard typewriter and an $80.00 life scholarship in Hill's business college.

This is called The News $1,500 Subscription Contest, for it is proposed to give that much in value in premiums. So attractive will be this contest, that those entering may safely feel certain that for a few week's pleasant occupation, there may be secured not only wide reputation for popularity and high standing, but, as well the ownership of substantial property, which under ordinary circumstances would take many long months of hard labor to acquire.

The News suggests that you be first from your community to get in the contest. You will be gratified to learn the number of your friends who will save News coupons good for six votes for you and as well renew their subscriptions and become new subscribers. For every dollar collected in any manner on subscription to the News there will be credited in favor of contestant whom subscriber may designate One Hundred Votes. It has been decided that for every dollar paid on subscription to The Daily News, there will only be allowed fifty votes instead of One Hundred Votes as in the Weekly News and instead of each coupon in the Daily News being good for six votes as in the Weekly News, each Coupon will only be worth one vote.

This premium contest is inaugurated principally in behalf of The Weekly News, and it is determined that the rules promulgated shall not militate against the boys and girls and men and women in the country districts. After this week the location of the premiums in contest will be published that all may determine for themselves the value of News premium offers.

All interested parties are cordially invited to communicate with the editor, either through correspondence or by personal call.

FARM DEPARTMENT.

Why Butter Is High.

Hoard's Dairyman gives the following explanation of why the price of butter continues to average high notwithstanding the increase in the number of butter making establishments.

Much speculation is indulged in about the fact that, with all the supposed great increase in creameries, the price of butter still holds up. Those who speculate forget two or three things:

1. That the cow is the source of the butter supply, not the creamery.
2. That the more dense the cow population becomes in any section, the less proportion of helper calves are raised.
3. That the increase in milk consumption has been so great that a very large share of the cows of the country have been diverted from butter making to that business.
4. That the increase of cows in this country is only about 6 per cent yearly, so it takes about twenty years to double the cow population.

Creamlets.

For the dairy cows clover hay is far preferable to timothy hay.

The man who does not like cows has no business trying to run a dairy.

Get at the work of building or repairing early, for they all say that fall rains will be copious.

Ever get nipped in a cow trade? My, how hot it does make a fellow feel to realize that he has been swindled.

Can you pick out the cows which are paying their way? The only safe test is the scales and the Babcock tester.

Don't buy the cow until you have tried her, or at least milked her once. A big insight into the animal is obtained in this way, and remember that the man who is not willing to let you prove his claims for an animal is not the man you want to have dealings with.

Cross breeding of domestic animals is every objectionable, except in the hands of the expert. In the opinion of W. E. Hoard it is impossible to improve on the best types of thoroughbred animals existing at present, except by careful selection and mating of the best individuals. Crossing, as it is generally practiced, results only in producing inferior animals. For some unaccountable reason the habit of crossing has taken possession of a good many farmers. Some of them, I believe, have the crossing fever so bad that they would cross with a saw-buck if they could.

A dozen different conditions may give rise to tainted milk, as foul air in barn; cows lying in manure; rusty milk tins, sick cows and udder diseases; putting fresh and old milk in the same cans; unwholesome or strong smelling fodder and foods;

failure to cool milk immediately after milking; impure water for washing utensils; or impure dirty water for the cows to drink; uncleanly milking; manure particles dropping from udder keeping milk too long in stable before removing to milk room; lack of cleanliness in the care of the milk.

A dairyman says that a calf that has never sucked will drink from the pail from the word go. He fixes things so that the calf is kept from its dam after calving, and a few hours after he milks about three quarts in a pail and puts it under the calf's nose so as to touch, and says that the calf will at once begin to drink. Our plan has been to take the calf away on the second day and have found it no difficult task to bring the calf to drink from the pail by inserting two fingers in the calf's mouth and bringing her nose in to the milk. As she begins to suck gradually withdraw the fingers and with a few times trying your calf will drink without further trouble.

CERTIFICATE.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
INDIAN TERRITORY, ss.
Southern District.

This is to certify that at a meeting of the stockholders of Ada Title and Trust Company, of Ada, Indian Territory, held at the office of the Company on the 11th day of October, A. D. 1907, at 2 o'clock, P. M. of said day, which meeting was called in accordance with the By-laws of said corporation and in pursuance of the authority given in Section 976 of Chapter 29, of Mansfield's Digest, of the Laws of Arkansas, extended over and put in force in the Indian Territory by Act of Congress, approved February 18, 1901, for the express purpose of amending the articles of incorporation of said Ada Title and Trust Company, at which meeting 215 shares of the capital stock, being the entire amount of the capital stock of said company issued, were duly represented, the following resolution was duly adopted:

RESOLVED, That the articles of incorporation of Ada Title and Trust Company specifying the purposes for which said corporation was organized be amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

FIRST: To make contracts, to transact a general loan business; to receive deposits of money, bonds, securities and other property, and to pay or receive such sums of interest and compensation as may be agreed upon; to lend money and negotiate loans on real estate, chattel or personal property, personal endorsement, collateral or other securities; to buy, sell, own, discount, negotiate and hypothecate notes, bonds, mortgages, debentures, warrants and all other evidence of indebtedness or certificates of value and securities and properties.

To issue and sell its debentures, and to secure the same by the pledge of property or securities; to guarantee the payment of notes or debentures issued or negotiated; to borrow money and to execute notes, bonds, mortgages, debentures or deeds of trust to secure the same.

SECOND: To make abstracts of title to real estate and certify thereto; to guarantee the title to real estate; to warrant the covenants in conveyances or real estate or contracts, pertaining thereto.

THIRD: To do a general Fire,

Lightning, Tornado and Windstorm insurance business; to insure buildings, merchandise and other personal property against loss or damage by fire, lightning, tornado and windstorms.

FOURTH: To do a general Building and Loan business; to act as the general or local agent of Building and Loan companies or associations.

FIFTH: To do a general agency business; to act as the general or local agent of Fire, Tornado, Life, Accident, Fidelity and Casualty insurance companies or associations.

SIXTH: To do a general banking business.

SEVENTH: To do a general trust business; to accept and execute all such trusts and perform such duties of executor, administrator, guardian or trustee as may be committed to it by any person, court, municipality, corporation, firm, company, association or other authority; to act as the factor, broker, attorney, agent or representative of any corporation, association, firm or individual, state, county, municipality or government; to act as assignee, receiver, trustee and depository, and to accept and execute all such trusts and perform such duties of every description as may be committed or transferred to it by order, judgment or decree of any court of record; to accept from and execute trusts for married women in regard to their separate property whether real or personal, and as agent for them in the management of such property.

EIGHTH: To act as executor under the last will or at the instance of any person entitled to any administration or guardianship of any estate, as administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or as guardian or curator of any infant, minor, insane person, idiot, or habitual drunkard, or trustee, for any convict in the penitentiary under the appointment of any court of record having jurisdiction of the person or estate of such deceased person, infant, minor, insane person, idiot, habitual drunkard or convict.

NINTH: To make bonds of administrators, executors, guardians, litigants and all bonds required by any court, corporation, firm or individual; to guarantee the faithful performance of duty of any public official or employee, to act as surety on bonds, notes and contracts; to guarantee the discharge of obligations and the fulfilling of contracts by other corporations, firms, officials, employees or individuals, and to own or control a safety vault and rent the boxes therein.

TENTH: To do a general real estate business; to purchase, lease, rent, bond, or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, and deal in real estate and all estates in real estate and any and all kinds of personal property, mines, mining claims, mining leases, timber and timber lands, coal lands, oil lands, gas lands, and mineral lands and rights of every character; oil, gas, coal, asphaltum, lead, zinc, gold, silver, marble, stone and all other minerals and to work, mine, operate, develop, manufacture, refine, reproduce and convert the same into any and all forms, combinations and conditions into which the same or any of them are capable of being converted, and to sell and dispose of the same; to cultivate and improve real estate.

To own and establish townsites and subdivide the same into blocks, lots, streets and alleys and sell the same; to own and plat additions to towns already established and sell the same; and to act as agent of the owners of townsites and additions to established towns in the managements and sale of lots therein.

To do manufacturing and mercantile business; to buy, own, sell, handle, control letters patent, inventions and the shares of stock of other corporations, the shares of stock of other corporations, and to exercise in respect to all such bonds, mortgages, notes, debentures real estate, trusts, shares of stock and other securities, rights and properties and obligations, all the rights powers and privileges of individual owners thereof, including the right to vote upon any shares of stock owned by it to same extent that a natural person might or could do; to construct, own, equip and operate pipe lines for the purpose of transporting oil, water, gas, and to do any and all other acts and things and to exercise any and all other powers which a co-partnership or natural person should do or exercise and which may now or hereinafter be authorized by law.

It was further resolved that the president and a majority of the board of directors be authorized under the seal of the corporation, to file proper certificates of amended articles of incorporation, as hereinbefore provided, with the clerk of the United States Court of Appeals, at McAlester, Indian Territory, and the clerk of the United States Court at Ada, Indian Territory, as provided by section 976, of Chapter 29, Mansfield's Digest of the Laws of Arkansas, extended to and put in force in the Indian Territory, as aforesaid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, the undersigned, being all of the Stockholders of said Ada Title and Trust Company, have hereunto set our hands and seals, at Ada, I. T., this 26th day of October, A. D. 1907.

Cannon Again the Big Gun--Williams Minority Leader--Owen and Gore not Seated--Oklahoma's Representatives Cheered

Washington, Dec. 2. A brilliant session of the sixty-first congress today. In the senate and house of representatives there were notable gatherings in the galleries of representatives first time of the men who have been elected to the senate and house about 100 of whom have not before served in congress. At the occasion the of particular interest Oklahoma's senators will not be received until their formal election.

The striking scenes of the day were in the house of representatives when the formal election of Joseph G. Cannon who again became speaker of that body and designation by the democrats of John Sharp Williams as their leader were occasions for ovations for those gentlemen. The vast hall of the house of representatives rang with the cheers of republicans and democrats for their leader and the speaker received as warm a reception from the majority as he did from his wife.

When the adoption of rules on the government of house during the sixty-first congress came up the rules of the last congress were opposed by John Sharp Williams and by we joined in the opposition by democrats and by a single republican Mr. Cooper of Wisconsin. The old rules were held to be too intricate, placing too much power in the hands of the speaker but after a somewhat perfunctory discussion they were adopted by a vote.

Cheer Oklahoma's Continent
When Oklahoma was called the democrats loudly applauded the representatives from her new state who followed their own whistlers.

The republican and democratic caucuses of the house of representatives were presented and the republican caucuses were elected.

Gore and Owen Not Received

Misses Robert F. Owen and J. P. Gore of Oklahoma not having been elected to the senate by their legislatures were not received by the speaker and their credentials will not be accepted until after their formal election on December 10.

OTHER CANDIDATES FURNISHED

Majority of Democrats in Congress think Bryan the Only One.

New York, Dec. 2.—On Tuesday six democratic senators and representatives of the Wisconsin caucuses in New York would not vote for William Jennings Bryan but for a candidate for the presidency.

OKLAHOMAS' LEGISLATURE

Officers Elected--Organization Perfected--Governor's Message Read--Busy Scenes

Clinton, Okla., Dec. 2. In the presence of the senate and house of representatives, today tonight in joint session in the city hall after Oklahoma's first state legislature had been organized Governor C. N. Haskell delivered his first message. The governor read slowly and distinctly, giving emphasis to the most important recommendations. The reading was attended closely and with marked interest by the legislators and hundreds of spectators who filled the galleries, halls and windows.

Speaker Murray presided over the session and President Pro Tem John Sharp Williams presided over the senate. The reading was attended closely and with marked interest by the legislators and hundreds of spectators who filled the galleries, halls and windows.

Counting Senators William and Keldor comprising that on clerks. The Senators Billings, Stafford, Soldon and Cunningham that on roll call and on clerks. The latter committee consisted of largely and reported in contests upon which the roll was called by Senator Lebois and all members. The number reported.

Chief Justice Williams of the Oklahoma supreme court administered the oath with which the constitution has provided for all state and county officers. The senators stood at their respective desks with right hands upon the walls. Then they turned with right hands upon the walls. Then they turned with right hands upon the walls. Then they turned with right hands upon the walls.

The XX Century Club.

The XX Century Club held an exceedingly interesting meeting with Mrs. H. M. Furman last Tuesday.

The lesson for the afternoon was practical Home science. Recipes and demonstrations with Mrs. Brown as leader. Members and guests answered to roll call with their "Favorite Dish" it was very interesting to note the variety of tastes of "club women."

Members engaged in quite an interesting discussion on "School Lunches" receiving many helpful ideas.

In demonstrating their "Favorite dishes" half of the club entertained the other half with a three course luncheon.

The first course served and prepared in the dining room on chafing dishes by Mrs. Galbraith, Furman and Miss Torbett, consisted of Welsh-rabbit, cheese straws and pickles. The second course a delicious fruit salad and wafers, was served by Mesdames Lefevre, Moore and Thomson.

The third course, the delectable of all puddings, "marshmallow" was served with coffee by Mesdames Hope, Croxton, Meades, Brown and Beard.

Mrs. Furman's palatial home was beautifully decorated in mistletoe and other evergreens which was a pleasant reminder that the holidays are almost here.

There were a number of invited guests present who considered this as one of the most delightful and helpful of club meetings.

Rev. J. F. Tanner of Pryor Creek, Oklahoma, is in the city in the interest of the W. T. Whitaker Orphan's home, the only orphanage for white and Indian children in the new state.

Rev. Tanner enjoys the distinction of being engaged in a great work and in a work that has done a great deal toward the uplifting of orphan children in Oklahoma since the orphanage was founded in 1887.

The children's band at the Whitaker Orphan's Home furnished the music at Gov. Haskell's inauguration and is considered one of the best bands in Oklahoma.

Rev. Tanner preached at the First Methodist church last Sunday night and at the conclusion of the service took up a collection for the benefit of the mission. Something near thirty dollars in cash was realized and several others subscribed a real neat sum.

Rah for Wimble.

Robt. Wimble, Pontotoc county's attorney has an article in the governor's message. While in Guthrie some time ago, he made the following recommendation to the governor and was then assured that such would be done.

It reads: "All attorneys for the state and county attorneys being empowered to present criminal charges by information I recommend the adoption of proper laws requiring witnesses to appear before such attorneys and give evidence as to criminal offenses, concerning which subject the attorney may require knowledge preliminary to the filing of such information."

Attorney Wimble has prepared a bill along this line and it is now in the hands of Representative Ratliff.

Ada gets all the good things, why shouldn't she get the new state normal? That's another good thing and we are going to get it too. We are going after it and we are going to work for it. The creed of the Ada people has always been to believe in laughing, not weeping; working, not walling; boosting, not knocking and in getting what we go after. If we get it we will have a prize worthy of going after, and we are sure to get it if we work. Get busy.

A tickling cough from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, an effects the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by Ramsey's Drug Store.

DEMONS OF DARK AGES.

Demons Conjured Up in Torture Room of Ancient Tyrant.

The horror of horrors in all Italy is found at Padua, known as the torture rooms of that demonical monster of cruelty, Ecelino, a thirteenth century ruler of Verona, Padua, Vicenza and Brescia. His cruelties finally became so intolerable that the church proclaimed a crusade against him. The peasant rose and a farmer killed the brute with a scythe. I was shown an upright box in which was the skeleton of a victim. Two apertures enabled the condemned to see a table, just out of reach, crowded with food and drink. To-day, it is starchy food and the wine is colored water, but the realism is intense. The climax of shudders was reached when I came to a block in the center of a small square room. Nailed to the chopping block, severed midway between the wrist and elbow, lay the dainty hand of a woman, just as it had been chopped from the living arm! The instant my eyes saw this sight the cell seemed to resound with the shrieks of the terrified woman, and, although the hand I gazed upon was of wax, the mental shock produced was a dreadful beyond conception. —Brynhera Egan

DOOM OF MIGHTY LONDON.

Fire About the Only Agent Which Can Cause Its Destruction.

With hints of German invasion and of an approaching earthquake, the question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about the ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealander is to cast his moralizing eye? Several answers may be given. The destruction of London at the hands of a victorious invader is possible, but extremely improbable. London may be besieged, even bombarded; she cannot be destroyed. Flood? This again may be dismissed as most improbable; and one calamity only remains to be considered, namely—fire. Now, London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause, and in 1666 the city was practically wiped out. Every one knows this; but it is not every one who knows that the great conflagration was predicted 15 years before by Lilly, the astrologer, and by another astrologer, Nostradamus, a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quatrain, the gist of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St. Paul's and 25 other churches.—Cashell's Saturday Journal.

THE CURSE OF PATIENCE.

Owner of One Telephone in First Building in Waste.

"Of course," said the cheerful woman, "I believe in having my neighbors as myself, but I find it harder since we have had a telephone put in our flat. We live in an old-fashioned flat house and ours is the only telephone on the premises. I do not know how the neighbors learned that we have one, for I am not acquainted with anybody in the building, but it was not more than a week when the woman across the hall came over to ask if she could use it. 'Of course I'll pay,' she said, and naturally I had no choice but to let her use it. She paid five cents, but under the rules of the telephone company private wires cost more than that per message. Now, I did not wish to be small, so I let it pass. She evidently carried the good news throughout the building, for there has been a continuous performance ever since. A few days ago somebody rang me up and asked for Mrs. Blank, who lives on the top floor. I was the only person at home at the time, so I had to climb three flights of stairs and tell Mrs. Blank to come down. What's that? Virtue its own—Oh, yes, I know; but whose virtue?"

SIXTIETH CONGRESS MEETS

Cannon Again the Big Gun--Wil- liams Minority Leader--Owen and Gore not Seated--Oklahoma's Rep- resentatives Cheered

Washington, Dec. 2. A brilliant ceremony marked the meeting of the sixtieth congress today. In the senate and house of representatives there were notable gatherings in the galleries of representatives first time of the men who have been elected to the senate and house about 100 of whom have not before served in congress. At the occasion one of particular interest Oklahoma's senators will not be received until their formal election.

The striking scenes of the day were in the house of representatives where the formal election of Joseph C. Cannon who again became speaker of that body and designation by the democrats of John Sharp Williams as their leader were occasions for ovations for those gentlemen. The vast hall of the house of representatives rang with the cheers of republicans and democrats for their leader and the speaker received as warm a reception from the members as did from his wife and family.

CORE AND OWEN ARE PRESENT.

Oklahoma's Senators Appointed by Haskell Occupy Seats.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Oklahoma did not have her full representation at the opening of Congress today, as Senators Owen and Gore will not ask to take the oath until they have been elected by the Oklahoma legislature. But though they were not participants, both of them were on the floor of the senate during the session, occupying desks set up for them on the democratic side. Before the opening of the session Senator Gore was led all over the chamber and through the various exits, and said today he hopes within a short time to be able to make his way about the chamber and even to find the seat of any senator without guidance.

In the house all of Oklahoma's representatives were present long before the session began. The new members, Messrs. Carter, Davenport, Fulton and Ferris were introduced by Mr. Williams, and on the republican side by Mr. McGuire. The Oklahomaans introduced several bills. The most notable of them was one by Mr. Ferris providing for an increase of two in Oklahoma's representation. The census taken by the federal authorities showed a population in the new state of 1,500,000 which on the present basis of representation entitles it to seven instead of five members in the house. There is no likelihood that this increase will be granted during the present session.

Mr. McGuire introduced a bill today for the removal of restrictions as to the lands of mixed bloods. It provides for the removal of restrictions on all their lands, but applies only to the surplus lands of the full-bloods. It also proposes to tax all surplus lands, whether of mixed bloods or of full-bloods, but exempts the homesteads. The democratic members will meet in a few days to agree on a measure for this purpose.

Representative Carter introduced bills for the erection of public buildings at McAlester and Ardmore, to cost $200,000 each. Mr. Davenport's bills providing for public buildings at Vinita, Muskogee and Tulsa, and Mr. Fulton a bill providing for a public building at Oklahoma City.

CHICAGO'S EMERGENCY MONEY.

Eight Millions of Clearing House Checks in Use and More Will Be Issued.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—For the first time since the circulation of clearing house checks began the force of clerks at the Northern Trust Company building assigned to prepare them for distribution to the banks took a Sunday rest yesterday.

A restoration of confidence among the people generally which has resulted in a marked increase in the amount of currency in circulation, is expected to cause a diminishing demand for the clearing house checks. From now on the clerks employed in the distribution will not be required to work at night, as they have heretofore, except, possibly, during pay roll periods when the demand is larger than usual.

More than 8 million dollars of clearing house checks have been distributed, and it is expected that the total will reach 12 million dollars. It is believed that its withdrawal from circulation by the banks will continue steadily.

This week is expected to bring continued progress toward normal financial conditions. Letters continue to come to the clearing house association from country bankers containing assurances of co-operation in the matter of returning to a currency basis.

"Bill" Cross About Well.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 2.—Secretary of State William Cross thinks he will be able to take personal charge of his office in about two weeks. The secretary did not realize how seriously sick he had been until he began to convalesce, and he is very weak. In the meantime, the affairs of his office are under the charge of his assistant secretary, Leo Myers.

It is Mr. Thomas W. Lawson's habit to look for trouble, and he has shown a remarkable capacity for finding it. At any stage of the game he seems to think worse days must precede better. His diagnosis of the financial situation and his remedy for its evils are truly startling, especially the part he has assigned to President Roosevelt. The Lawson plan would certainly insure the "worse days," whether the better would come or not. In the eradication of public evils it is well to go to the root of the matter, but in eliminating the evils of finance is it a good plan to blow trumpets and sound alarms?

$5,000 Club.

A large and enthusiastic business meeting of citizens was held at the Club rooms last evening. Matters of the utmost importance to the city were earnestly discussed. It is confidently expected that a movement was initiated at last night's meeting which will result in incalculable benefit to the community and place Ada among the great cities of the state.

OKLAHOMA'S LEGISLATURE

an accurate and approved basis for their beginning.

Recommend a Lobby Limit.

As to the practice of lobbying before legislative bodies, the message says:

"Believing that all classes of people who feel that the interest of themselves or their employers entitle them to be heard before the legislative bodies of the state, but that such hearing should be open to the public, I earnestly recommend the adoption of such rules and the passage of such laws as will limit the privilege of the lobbyist to open oral arguments or public print, and that a suitable penalty be provided punishing any offender against the rules or laws that you may provide or enact; that this apply not only to lobbying before your honorable body, but before municipal legislative departments.

I am advised that many of the companies, or individuals, seeking to supply the public within the state with school books and other necessities, make it a practice to secretly employ many of those connected with schools or other professions and official positions, upon whose advice the public is supposed, and has a right to rely. The secret character of such employment places the public at a disadvantage. In my judgment no one connected with the public schools or other public service of the state should be permitted to accept employment or compensation from those who sell supplies to the public or the state, and further that secret employment by such persons or institutions should also be prohibited.

"I therefore recommend that all such employees or representatives of persons or corporations seeking to sell school books or other supplies to the public should be required, immediately upon accepting such employment, to evidence that fact by such recorded notice as you deem proper, giving public notice of the fact that they are a representative of such person or corporation, and that a failure to do so shall be declared to be a crime punishable by such fine and imprisonment as you may find proper.

Removal of Causes.

"Referring to the provision of the Federal law that a citizen of another state (natural or artificial) may in an action by or against a citizen of this state, either by original filing or by subsequent removal, avoid the courts of this state, and have his case tried in the federal courts, in case the amount involved be more than $2,000; there are many instances in which I consider this is unfair to the people of our state, and gives a special privilege to the non-citizen, greater, I believe, than congress intended they should have; and I also believe congress, in its wisdom, contemplated that the states might regulate this in certain cases. For example, the foreign corporation, which practically domiciles itself in our state by setting up its agency, obtaining a certificate authorizing it to do business within our state, and constantly dealing with our citizens. It is my opinion that such corporations should be required to submit differences with our citizens to the courts of the state. While I do not reflect upon the federal courts as an inadequate opportunity for securing justice, the limited number of federal courts makes it necessary for many of our people to incur the expense and loss of time traveling great distances and waiting for their day of trial in a crowded forum, instead of being permitted to enjoy the convenience of a court in a county where they reside, and where the cause of action arose.

"I find that many foreign corporations have taken their charters from distant states in order to enjoy just such special privileges. I also find that they avail themselves often of the special privilege of carrying causes in the federal courts as a means of inducing unfair settlement.

"I believe that these corporations which come into our state to do business and obtain a state license for that purpose are to be welcomed by us as a part of the business interests of the state, and that they should have just protection and an opportunity to secure justice in our state courts, but I do not believe that they should enjoy this special privilege, which, while a favor to them, is a hardship upon our citizens.

"Therefore, believing that congress intended that States might provide reasonable limitation upon the general provisions, I recommend that such removal of causes from the state to the federal courts by foreign corporations shall work a revocation of their license to do business within the state."

Mandatory Primaries.

The Oklahoma constitution provides for a mandatory primary for the nomination of all elective officers, United States senators included, and makes it the duty of the legislature to enact laws making the provision effective.

Referring to this, the message recommends as follows:

"That such primaries be held at the expense of the state, and by all political parties upon the same day throughout the state, and all its subdivisions.

"That no candidate for office be required to make payment of any fee to secure the printing of his name upon the ballot.

"That the amount of money that any candidate may expend directly or indirectly, or that others may expend for him, incident to his candidacy for the primary nomination, be limited, rated as to the various officers as the legislature may deem wise and that every such candidate at the primary election shall at the proper time (designated in the law) file a sworn statement of all moneys expended by him or in his interest by others, and the purpose for which each item of expense was incurred.

"I recommend that proper laws be enacted making it a criminal offense for a corporation of any kind to contribute money, or other thing of value directly or indirectly, to influence any nomination of a candidate for public office, or the election of any public officer, and that substantial penalty be imposed for violation of such law.

The XX Century Club.

The XX Century Club held an exceedingly interesting meeting with Mrs. H. M. Furman last Tuesday.

The lesson for the afternoon was practical home science. Recipes and demonstrations with Mrs. Brown as leader. Members and guests answered to roll call with their "Favorite Dish" it was very interesting to note the variety of tastes of "club women."

Members engaged in quite an interesting discussion on "School Lunches" receiving many helpful ideas.

In demonstrating their "Favorite dishes" half of the club entertained the other half with a three course luncheon.

The first course served and prepared in the dining room on chafing dishes by Mrs. Galbraith, Furman and Miss Torbett, consisted of Welsh-rabbit, cheese straws and pickles. The second course a delicious fruit salad and wafers, was served by Mesdames Lefevre, Moore and Thomson.

The third course, the delectable of all puddings, "marshmallow" was served with coffee by Mesdames Hope, Croxton, Meades, Brown and Beard.

Mrs. Furman's palatial home was beautifully decorated in mistletoe and other evergreens which was a pleasant reminder that the holidays are almost here.

There were a number of invited guests present who considered this as one of the most delightful and helpful of club meetings.

Mission Worker Here.

Rev. J. F. Tanner of Pryor Creek, Oklahoma, is in the city in the interest of the W. T. Whiteaker Orphan's home the only orphanage for white and Indian children in the new state.

Rev. Tanner enjoys the distinction of being engaged in a great work and in a work that has done a great deal toward the uplifting of orphan children in Oklahoma since the orphanage was founded in 1887.

The children's band at the Whiteaker Orphan's Home furnished the music at Gov. Haskell's inauguration and is considered one of the best bands in Oklahoma.

Rev. Tanner preached at the First Methodist church last Sunday night and at the conclusion of the service took up a collection for the benefit of the mission. Something near thirty dollars in cash was realized and several others subscribed a real neat sum.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force; makes you well and happy. 35c, Tea or Tablets. G. M. RAMSEY.

Bak for Wimblish.

Robt. Wimblish, Pontotoc county's attorney has an article in the governor's message. While in Guthrie some time ago, he made the following recommendation to the governor and was then assured that such would be done.

"All attorneys for the state and county attorneys being empowered to present criminal charges by information I recommend the adoption of proper laws requiring witnesses to appear before such attorneys and give evidence as to criminal offenses, concerning which subject the attorney may require knowledge preliminary to the filing of such information."

Attorney Wimblish has prepared a bill along this line and it is now in the hands of Representative Ratliff.

When December's icy fingers, Have shorn each forest tree, It's time to tone your system.

By taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. G. M. RAMSEY.

Why don't you meet Thelma before she leaves town at Gwin, Mays & Co.'s. 281-12

Mrs. B. C. Sims returned to her home at Hartsboro, Okla., this afternoon after visiting relatives here.

Accident at Francis.

Mr. G. C. Kain, one of the News' readers at Francis was in town today. Mr. Kain says that Sunday morning an unknown man was run over by the north bound Frisco and perhaps fatally injured. The man was a stranger in Francis and Mr. Kain was unable to give any of the particulars.

A tickling cough from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, an dbeals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to inflame or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by Ramsey's Drug Store.

REMARKS OF DARK AGES.

Stones Conjured Up in Torture Room of Ancient Tyrant.

The horror of horrors in all Italy is found at Padua, known as the torture room of that demonic monster of cruelty, Eccelino, a thirteenth century ruler of Verona, Padua, Vicenza and Brescia. His cruelties finally became so intolerable that the church proclaimed a crusade against him. The peasant rose and a farmer killed the brute with a scythe. I was shown an upright box in which was the skeleton of a victim. Two apertures enabled the condemned to see a table, just out of reach, crowded with food and drink. To-day, it is stage food and the wine is colored water, but the realism is intense. The climax of shudders was reached when I came to a block in the center of a small square room. Nailed to the chopping block, severed midway between the wrist and elbow, lay the dainty hand of a woman, just as it had been chopped from the living arm! The instant my eyes saw this sight the cell seemed to resound with the shrieks of the terrified woman, and, although the hand I gazed upon was of wax, the mental shock produced was dreadful beyond conception. —Brooklyn Eagle

DOOM OF MIGHTY LONDON.

Fire About the Only Agent Which Can Cause Its Destruction.

With hints of German invasion and of an approaching earthquake, the question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about the ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealander is to cast his moralizing eye? Several answers may be given. The destruction of London at the hands of a victorious invader is possible, but extremely improbable. London may be besieged, even bombarded; she cannot be destroyed. Flood? This again may be dismissed as most improbable; and one calamity only remains to be considered, namely—fire. Now, London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause, and in 1666 the city was practically wiped out. Every one knows this; but it is not every one who knows that the great conflagration was predicted 15 years before by Lilly, the astrologer, and by another astrologer, Nostradamus, a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quatrain, the gist of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St Paul's and 89 other churches. —Casey's Saturday Journal.

THE LINE OF PATIENCE.

Owner of One Telephone in Flat Building 2 stories.

"Of course," said the cheerful woman, "I believe in loving my neighbor as myself, but I find it harder since we have had a telephone put in our flat. We live in an old-fashioned flat house and ours is the only telephone on the premises. I do not know how the neighbors learned that we have one, for I am not acquainted with anybody in the building, but it was not in more than a week when the woman across the hall came over to ask if she could use it. 'Of course I'll pay,' she said, and naturally I had no choice but to let her use it. She paid five cents, but under the rules of the telephone company private wires cost more than that per message. However, I did not wish to be small, so I let it pass. She evidently carried the good news throughout the building, for there has been a continuous performance ever since. A few days ago somebody rang me up and asked for Mrs. Blank, who lives on the top floor. I was the only person at home at the time, so I had to climb three flights of stairs and tell Mrs. Blank to come down. What's that? Virtue its own—Oh, yes, I know; but whose virtue?"

Take your old clothes to Berry at Crowder's Barber shop; he will make them like new. 241

NEWS PREMIUM Subscription Contest.

Beginning Monday, December 2nd to continue four months, ending March 31-4, The News will conduct a contest devoted to securing a large and more extended circulation and to properly rewarding those who may become our associates and helpers in this undertaking.

As outlined in last week's News, all the features of the contest will be simple. Several valuable premiums will be given to those securing themselves, or through their friends, the greatest number of Subscribers to the News.

All the premiums will be listed in the order of their conservatively estimated values. At the expiration of the contest, the premium awards will be made by the contest judges with a view to their fitness, based on their reputations for honesty and fair dealing.

To the lady contestant securing the highest number of votes there will be given a $500 upright standard brand piano, accompanied with a guarantee of ten years. To the contestant ladies and gentlemen included—securing the second highest number of votes there will be given a warranty deed to a Two Hundred Dollar well located residence lot situated in the best town in this section of the country.

There will be several other premiums included in other valuable real estate situated in the more substantial towns in this section, and in addition a $100 standard typewriter and an $80.00 life scholarship in H.M.'s business college.

This is called The News $1,500 Subscription Contest, for it is proposed to give that much in value in premiums. So attractive will be this contest, that those entering may safely feel certain that for a few weeks' pleasant occupation, there may be secured not only wide reputation for popularity and high standing but, as well the ownership of substantial property, which under ordinary circumstances would take many long months of hard labor to acquire.

The News suggests that you be first from your community to get in the contest. You will be gratified to learn the number of your friends who will save News coupons good for six votes for you and as well renew their subscriptions and become new subscribers. For every dollar collected in any manner on subscription to the News there will be credited in favor of contestant whom subscriber may designate the Hundred Votes. It has been decided that for every dollar paid on subscription to The Daily News, there will only be allowed fifty votes instead of One Hundred Votes as in the Weekly News and instead of each coupon in the Daily News being good for six votes as in the Weekly News, each coupon will only be worth one vote.

This premium contest is inaugurated principally in behalf of The Weekly News, and it is determined that the rules promulgated shall not militate against the boys and girls and men and women in the country districts. After this week the location of the premiums in contest will be published that all may determine for themselves the value of News premium offers.

All interested parties are cordially invited to communicate with the editor, either through correspondence or by personal call.

FARM DEPARTMENT.

Why Butter Is High.

Hoards Dairyman gives the following explanation of why the price of butter continues to average high notwithstanding the increase in the number of butter making establishments.

Much speculation is indulged in about the fact that with all the supposed great increase in creameries, the price of butter still holds up. Those who speculate forget two of the things:

1. That the cow is the source of the butter supply, not the creamery.

2. That the more dense the cow population becomes in any section the less production of better butter is raised.

3. That the more milk cows sum up has been so great that a very large share of the cows of the country have been imported from other parts of the country.

4. That the increase of cows in this country is only at a percentage rate, so it takes about twenty years to double the cow population.

Cremlins.

But the cow does not have a perfect right to Timothy hay.

The man who does not like cows has no business trying to run a dairy. Get at the work of building or rebuilding a dairy before they all say that all dairies will be closed.

Ever get up in a cow trail? How hot it is to make a fellow try to realize that his cow is a hindrance.

Can you get the cow who are paying the way for the only safe test?

Don't buy a cow until you have tried her. The cow who is a hindrance is a hindrance. The cow who is a hindrance is a hindrance. The cow who is a hindrance is a hindrance.

Cross breeding of cattle is a matter of much importance. In the opinion of W. D. H. it is impossible to improve on the best type of cow except by careful selection and mating of the best individuals. Crossing as it is generally practiced results only in producing inferior animals. For some unaccountable reason the habit of crossing has taken possession of a good many farmers. Some of them I believe, have the crossing fever so bad that they would cross with a saw-buck if they could.

A dozen different conditions may give rise to tainted milk, as foul air in barn, cows lying in manure, rusty milk tins, sick cows and udder diseases; putting fresh and old milk in the same cans; unwholesome or strong smelling fodder and foods;

failure to cool milk immediately after milking; impure water for washing utensils or impure dirty water for the cows to drink; uncleanly milking; panning particles dropping from udder; keeping milk too long in stable before moving to milk room; lack of cleanliness in the care of the milk.

A dairyman says that a calf that has never sucked will drink from the pail from the word go. He knows things so that the calf is kept from its dam after calving, and a few hours after he milks about three quarts in a pail and puts it under the calf's nose so as to touch and says that the calf will at once begin to drink. Our plan has been to take the calf away on the second day and have found it no difficult task to bring the calf to drink from the pail by inserting two fingers in the calf's mouth and bringing his nose in to the milk. As she begins to suck gradually withdraw the fingers and with a few times trying your calf will drink without further trouble.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker of Fayette N. Y. who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Eleonore Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took for several years. I had stomach trouble and I put out much money for medicine to little purpose until I began taking Eleonore Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me. Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alternative and body builder. Best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by F. Z. Holley and G. M. Revsey, druggists, 50c."

The Postmaster of Gasconade, Mo. Daniel A. Birch says: "I cannot say too much for your Kidney and Bladder Pills. I feel like a new man." DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are sold by Crescent Drug Store F. Z. Holley, Prop.
